FIFTH APPLICATION OF TRUSTEE AND BAKER & HOSTETLER LLP FOR ALLOWANCE OF INTERIM COMPENSATION FOR SERVICES RENDERED AND REIMBURSEMENT OF ACTUAL AND NECESSARY EXPENSES INCURRED FROM JUNE 1, 2010 THROUGH SEPTEMBER 30, 2010

TO THE HONORABLE BURTON R. LIFLAND,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Baker & Hostetler LLP (“B&H”), as counsel to Irving H. Picard, Esq., as trustee (the “Trustee”) for the substantively consolidated liquidation proceeding of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (“BLMIS”) under the Securities Investor Protection Act (“SIPA”), 15 U.S.C. § 78aaa et seq.,¹ and Bernard L. Madoff (“Madoff”), individually (collectively, “Debtor”), respectfully submits this fifth application (the “Application”) on behalf of the Trustee and itself for an order pursuant to section 78eee(b)(5) of SIPA, sections 330 and 331 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 2016(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and the Order Pursuant to Section 78eee(b)(5) of SIPA, Sections 105, 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a), and Local Bankruptcy Rule 2016-1 Establishing Procedures Governing Interim Monthly Compensation of Trustee and Baker & Hostetler LLP, dated February 25, 2009 [ECF No. 126], as amended on December 17, 2009 [ECF No. 1078] (collectively, the “Compensation Order”), allowing and awarding interim compensation for services performed by the Trustee and B&H for the period commencing June 1, 2010 through and including September 30, 2010 (the “Compensation Period”) and reimbursement of the Trustee’s and B&H’s actual and necessary expenses incurred during the Compensation Period; and in support thereof, respectfully represents as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. During the Compensation Period, the Trustee and his counsel continued to work diligently on behalf of customers and the estate of BLMIS, in accordance with SIPA and under the supervision of this Court. Above all, the Trustee and his counsel have endeavored to determine all customer claims and promptly address questions and concerns of customers and creditors.

2. Indeed, by the time the Court hears this Application on December 14, 2010, the Trustee will have determined virtually every one of the over 16,000 customer claims submitted to him. Moreover, the fruits of two years of labor by the Trustee and B&H will be revealed in the form of hundreds of actions filed, significant settlements entered into, and the recovery of millions of dollars to the fund of Customer Property, as that term is defined under section 78III(4) of SIPA.² The extent of the fraud engaged in by BLMIS and others will be more fully exposed, as will be the Trustee's enormous efforts to try to recover Customer Property for the benefit of BLMIS customers and investors as a result of that fraud.

3. Contrary to what has mistakenly been reported by various media and others, no administration costs, including the compensation of the Trustee and his counsel, will be paid out of any recoveries obtained by the Trustee for the benefit of BLMIS customers. Because the percentage commission schedule for trustees found in section 326(a) of the Bankruptcy Code is not applicable in a SIPA liquidation, see section 78fff(b) of SIPA, no applications filed by the Trustee have or will ever include a fee request equal to three (3%) percent (or any other percentage) of the total amount of recoveries made by the Trustee for the benefit of customers of BLMIS. Rather, the fees and expenses of the Trustee and of all counsel to the Trustee (including, but not limited to, B&H, various international special counsel ("International Counsel") retained by the Trustee as described in ¶ 70 of the Fourth Interim

² SIPA § 78III(4) defines "Customer Property" as "cash and securities . . . at any time received, acquired, or held by or for the account of a debtor from or for the securities accounts of a customer, and the proceeds of any such property transferred by the debtor, including property unlawfully converted."

Report for the Period Ending September 30, 2010 (“Fourth Interim Report”) [ECF No. 3038], Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP (“Windels Marx”), special counsel to the Trustee, collectively referred to herein as “Counsel”), and consultants) are paid from administrative advances from the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”), as are all administrative costs incurred by the Trustee. The Court affirmed during the recent hearing regarding the fourth application that these costs “do[] not come out of the estate.” Fourth App. Hr’g Tr. 31, Sept. 14, 2010.

4. Thus, SIPC plays a specific role regarding compensation in a liquidation proceeding such as this one, where the general estate is insufficient to pay trustee compensation and SIPC is required to advance funds to pay the costs of administration. See SIPA §§ 78fff(5) and 78fff-3(b)(2). The requested fees and expenses in this Application include (i) fees at the Trustee’s and B&H’s hourly billable rates to which a public interest discount of 10% has been applied, as described at ¶¶ 132-133, infra, and (ii) actual, necessary and reasonable expenses incurred within the Compensation Period.

5. As the Trustee and his Counsel’s fees and expenses are chargeable to the general estate and not to Customer Property, the payment of fees and expenses to the Trustee and any of his Counsel has absolutely no impact on recoveries that the Trustee has obtained and will obtain and that will be allocated to the fund of customer property for pro rata distribution to BLMIS customers whose claims have been allowed by the Trustee.

6. No single document can capture all of the tasks engaged in by the Trustee and B&H since their appointment on December 15, 2008. Thousands of hours have been expended by the Trustee and B&H in support of the Trustee’s efforts to liquidate the estate, determine customer claims, and advance the interests of all of customer claimants by initiating litigations and negotiations for the return of Customer Property to be distributed by the Trustee. Moreover, the Trustee has vigorously defended the estate with respect to a number of litigations filed against it and against his pursuit of returning customer property to the estate. The following discussion and materials attached to this Application cover the major categories of services for which allowance of compensation is sought.

7. As this Court has recognized, “[T]his is a very, very large and complex and broad international and national set piece of litigation. The . . . litigation sandbox is worldwide. The issue and negotiation sandbox, likewise, is worldwide with the Trustee required to appear and respond to litigation, both before this Court and other courts . . . [M]uch of the expenses and cost of litigation is incurred because there is an obligation, wherever the administration of the Madoff estate is implicated, for the Trustee to appear and deal with that. If litigation is brought on, it is obvious that the Trustee has to go and react to it.” Fourth App. Hr’g Tr. 29-30.

II. BACKGROUND

8. On December 11, 2008, Madoff was arrested by federal agents and was criminally charged with a multi-billion dollar securities fraud scheme in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 78j(b), 78ff, and 17 C.F.R. 240.10b-5 in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (“District Court”), captioned United States v. Madoff, No. 08-MAG-2735 (the “Criminal Case”).³

9. Also on December 11, 2008 (the “Filing Date” under SIPA), the SEC filed a complaint in the District Court against defendants Madoff and BLMIS, captioned Securities & Exchange Commission v. Madoff, et al., No. 08-CV-10791 (the “Civil Case”). The complaint alleged that the defendants engaged in fraud through the investment advisor (“IA”) activities of BLMIS.

10. On December 15, 2008, pursuant to section 78eee(a)(4)(A) of SIPA, the SEC consented to a combination of the Civil Case with an application filed by SIPC. Thereafter, pursuant to section 78eee(a)(3) of SIPA, SIPC filed an application in the District Court alleging, inter alia, that the Debtor was not able to meet its obligations to securities customers as they came due and, accordingly, its customers needed the protection afforded by SIPA.

11. On that date, the District Court entered the Protective Decree [ECF No. 4], to which BLMIS consented, which, in pertinent part:

- a. appointed the Trustee to liquidate the business of the Debtor pursuant to section 78eee(b)(3) of SIPA;
- b. appointed B&H as counsel to the Trustee pursuant to section 78eee(b)(3) of SIPA; and
- c. removed the case to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (“Bankruptcy Court” or “Court”) pursuant to section 78eee(b)(4) of SIPA.

12. By order dated December 23, 2008, this Court approved the Trustee’s bond. [ECF No. 11].

13. On February 4, 2009, after a noticed hearing, the Court entered the Order Regarding Disinterestedness of the Trustee and Counsel to the Trustee [ECF No. 69], finding that the Trustee and B&H are disinterested pursuant to section 78eee(b)(6) of SIPA, section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a), and are therefore in compliance with the disinterestedness requirement in section 78eee(b)(3) of SIPA, section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a). Thus, the Trustee and B&H are qualified to serve in this proceeding.

14. On August 6, 2009, the Court entered an order approving both the Trustee and B&H's First Interim Applications for Allowance of Interim Compensation for Services Rendered and Reimbursement of Actual and Necessary Expenses Incurred from December 15, 2009 through April 30, 2009. [ECF No. 363]. The Court awarded the Trustee an interim allowance of $607,383.00 for professional services rendered and $45.00 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses that the Trustee incurred during that period. An additional $151,845.75 in fees incurred by the Trustee during that period were held back and remain subject to approval by the Court. The Court awarded B&H an interim allowance of $11,729,855.86 for professional services rendered and $274,203.03 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses B&H incurred during that period. An additional $2,932,463.97 in fees incurred by B&H during that period were held back and remain subject to approval by the Court. At this time, the holdback amount was twenty percent (20%) of fees incurred by the Trustee and B&H.

15. On December 17, 2009, the Court entered an order approving both the Trustee and B&H's Second Interim Applications for Allowance of Interim Compensation for Services Rendered and Reimbursement of Actual and Necessary Expenses Incurred from May 1, 2009 through September 30, 2009. [ECF No. 1078]. The Court awarded the Trustee an interim allowance of $668,484.00 for professional services rendered and $921.25 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses that the Trustee incurred during that period. An additional $167,121.00 in fees incurred by the Trustee during that period were held back and remain subject to approval by the Court. The Court awarded B&H an interim allowance of $17,023,281.48 for professional services rendered and $280,681.62 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses B&H incurred during that period. An additional $4,255,820.37 in fees incurred by B&H during that period were held back and remain subject to approval by the Court.

16. In that same order, the Court approved a reduction in the holdback from twenty percent (20%) to fifteen percent (15%) of fees incurred. As such, the Court authorized the Trustee to disburse previously deferred funds equal to 5% of total fees requested to date, which amounted to $79,741.69 for the Trustee and $1,797,074.52 for B&H.

17. On May 6, 2010, the Court entered an order approving both the Trustee and B&H's Third Interim Applications for Allowance of Interim Compensation for Services Rendered and Reimbursement of Actual and Necessary Expenses Incurred from October 1, 2009 through January 31, 2010. [ECF No. 2251]. The Court awarded the Trustee an interim allowance of $570,852.56 for professional services rendered and $77.66 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses that the Trustee incurred during that period. An additional $100,739.69 in fees incurred by the Trustee during that period have been held back and remain subject to approval by the Court. The Court awarded B&H an interim allowance of $20,301,472.46 for professional services rendered and $390,204.89 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses B&H incurred during that period. An additional $3,582,612.79 in fees incurred by B&H during that period have been held back and remain subject to approval by the Court.

18. On September 14, 2010, the Court entered an order approving both the Trustee and B&H's Fourth Interim Applications for Allowance of Interim Compensation for Services Rendered and Reimbursement of Actual and Necessary Expenses Incurred from February 1, 2010 through May 31, 2010. [ECF No. 2981]. The Court awarded the Trustee an interim allowance of $511,021.92 for professional services rendered and $39.63 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses that the Trustee incurred during that period. An additional $90,180.33 in fees incurred by the Trustee during that period have been held back and remain subject to approval by the Court. The Court awarded B&H an interim allowance of $28,884,304.29 for professional services rendered and $731,371.19 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses B&H incurred during that period. An additional $5,097,230.16 in fees incurred by B&H during that period have been held back and remain subject to approval by the Court.

III. SUMMARY OF SERVICES

19. A SIPA proceeding contemplates the processing of customer claims and the orderly liquidation of the business of a broker-dealer, with the return of customer property to the failed brokerage's customers. Accordingly, the Trustee's and B&H's services, which are highlighted here and summarized in greater detail below, are comprised of the specific, critical tasks in aim of that objective.

20. The Trustee is a member of B&H.⁴ He practices principally in the areas of corporate reorganizations, bankruptcy, and insolvency. He is also a contributing author to Collier on Bankruptcy, 15th Edition Revised.

21. The Trustee was admitted to practice before this Court in 1982. He served as the first United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York in a pilot program from October 1, 1979, the effective date of the Bankruptcy Code, through May 15, 1982. Prior to his tenure as United States Trustee, Mr. Picard was Assistant General Counsel with the SEC in Washington, D.C., for three and a half years during which time his responsibilities included, among other things, disclosure and enforcement matters and bankruptcy reorganizations. Before becoming Assistant General Counsel, he spent approximately four years in various legal positions in the SEC's then-Division of Corporate Regulation, where his responsibilities primarily involved bankruptcy reorganizations. Prior thereto, Mr. Picard spent more than six years working in the securities industry.

⁴ As such, the Trustee will pay over to B&H the full amount of any interim compensation and disbursements awarded to him. See also Third App. Hr'g Tr. 85.

22. Mr. Picard has previously served as trustee in the following ten SIPA liquidations: Jay W. Kaufmann & Company (Bankr. S.D.N.Y., No TP 84-70064A (BRL)); Norbay Securities, Inc. (Bankr. E.D.N.Y., No. 186-0174-353); Investors Center Inc. (Bankr. E.D.N.Y., No 089-0017-21); Faitos & Co., Inc. (Bankr. E.D.N.Y., No 191-1085-260); U.S. Equity Management Corp. (Bankr. S.D.N.Y., No. 95/1284 (CB)); Euro-Atlantic Securities, Inc., (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. No. 98/9304A (BRL)); Hanover, Sterling & Co., Ltd. (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. No. 96/8396A (REG)); Klein Maus & Shire, Inc.. (Bankr. S.D.N.Y., No. 00/8193A (AJG)); Montrose Capital Management Ltd. (Bankr. S.D.N.Y., No. 01/8170A (CB)); and Park South Securities, LLC (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. No. 03-8024A (RDD)). He also has served as counsel to SIPC as trustee in two liquidation proceedings.

23. In rendering professional services to the Trustee in this SIPA proceeding, B&H's legal team has been composed of professionals with extensive experience in, among other fields, bankruptcy, securities, tax, corporate law, and litigation, permitting the Trustee to conduct this liquidation efficiently. B&H professionals have worked closely with the Trustee and his other professionals to coordinate assignments in order to avoid duplication of effort, which is beneficial to the customers, creditors, and other interested parties of BLMIS.

24. The Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Madoff through BLMIS was vast in scope, long in duration, and broad in its geographical reach. The Trustee, with the assistance of his Counsel, has undertaken a comprehensive investigation of all of the affairs of BLMIS, Madoff, and hundreds of related individuals and entities. To this end, the Trustee has engaged not only the services of Counsel but also the services of forensic accountants and legal experts, including, but not limited to, AlixPartners LLP (“AlixPartners”), the Trustee’s consultant and claims agent, FTI Consulting (“FTI”), the Trustee’s forensic consultant, Renaissance Associates, Ltd. (“Renaissance”), and several investigative and industry consultants (collectively referred to herein as “Consultants”).

25. From the very beginning of this proceeding, the Trustee and B&H, together with AlixPartners and FTI, have been processing the customer claims submitted to him. By statute, the Trustee must look at all the books and records of BLMIS in order to determine and evaluate each customer claim. Given the duration and complexity of the fraud engaged in by Madoff, each account has a unique and often extended history, frequently involving multiple transfers between accounts. Each claim, therefore, requires the Trustee to engage in extensive forensic analysis in order to reach an ultimate determination of each customer claim.

26. The Trustee received 16,394 claims filed by a wide variety of individuals and entities who were victims of Madoff’s fraud. These claimants include customers who had active accounts with BLMIS at the time of its demise, in addition to thousands of individuals or entities who invested indirectly in BLMIS through various feeder funds and other entities.

27. As of September 30, 2010, the Trustee has determined 13,403 customer claims, of which 2,232 were allowed, and committed to pay approximately $728 million in funds advanced to him by SIPC. The allowed claims total over $5.6 billion. The Trustee’s efforts in determining and satisfying claims are ongoing.⁵

28. In an effort to accelerate SIPA protection for individual victims of BLMIS who were suffering hardship, the Trustee and B&H implemented a Hardship Program. As of

⁵ As of November 12, 2010, the Trustee has determined over 90% of the claims submitted to him. In all, he has determined 14,769 customer claims, of which 2,291 were allowed, and committed to pay approximately $744 million in funds advanced to him by SIPC. The allowed claims total over $5.7 billion.

September 30, 2010, the Trustee received 317 Hardship Program applications and approved 196. The remaining Hardship applicants were ineligible for the program because either the account had a negative net equity (meaning the investor withdrew more than deposited) or the application was from a third party investor. As of September 30, 2010, 280 hardship applicants have had their claims determined or partially determined, one hardship applicant has both determined and non-determined claims, and nine hardship applications could not be tied to customer accounts. The remaining twenty-seven hardship applicants have not had their claims determined and are under various stages of review.

29. The Trustee is seeking the return of billions of dollars to the estate of BLMIS to be distributed to customers in accordance with SIPA. In carrying out his investigation into the many layers of complex financial transactions engaged in by Madoff and those who worked for him, the Trustee has issued hundreds of subpoenas, analyzed the myriad documentation received, and conducted numerous follow up activities to enforce the Trustee's rights to the return of customer property.

30. As a result of the investigative efforts of the Trustee, he has initiated litigations against feeder funds and certain individuals, most of whom are well known to the public through the press and other media.

31. As of September 30, 2010, the Trustee, through Counsel, filed nineteen avoidance actions seeking to recover over $15.5 billion in funds from various feeders funds, Madoff family members, and friends. The Trustee anticipates that he will file extensive additional litigation in the coming weeks based on investigations being conducted by the Trustee's Counsel and Consultants.

32. The Trustee has succeeded in obtaining the return of hundreds of millions of dollars to the estate by virtue of settlements with a number of parties. Because of the efforts being made by the Trustee and his Counsel, as of September 30, 2010, approximately $500 million has been recovered through settlements for the benefit of the customers.

33. The Trustee is also engaged in ongoing settlement negotiations with a number of parties, including customers against whom the Trustee has preference claims, which could result in large recoveries for the benefit of customers without the delay and expense of litigation.

34. The Trustee has also filed, through Counsel, three complaints and corresponding applications seeking to, among other things, preliminarily enjoin multiple plaintiffs from continuing to litigate actions or commencing new actions against various people and entities related to this liquidation proceeding, including certain Madoff family members, the estate of Jeffry Picower and related entities, and the Board of Directors, President, and CEO of SIPC. The Trustee brought the applications on several grounds. First, the plaintiffs' actions violate the automatic stay and other stays in place in the liquidation proceeding. Second, these actions threaten to impede the orderly administration of the BLMIS liquidation and usurp the jurisdiction of this Court by, among other things, undermining the claims administration process and circumventing the Court's determination regarding the proper formulation of a customer's net equity under SIPA. Finally, in a number of the actions, the claims brought by the plaintiffs are duplicative and derivative of the Trustee's own claims and improperly seek to recover fraudulently transferred funds and customer property in violation of the stays. Thus far, the Court has adjudicated one application, Picard v. Fox, et al., 10-3114 (BRL). The Court held that the plaintiffs had usurped causes of action belonging to the estate in violation of the automatic stay and that the circumstances of the case also warranted the issuance of a preliminary injunction pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. This matter is currently on appeal before the Southern District, Picard v. Fox, et al., 10-CV-4652 (JGK) and 10-CV-7101 (JGK).

35. The fraud Madoff perpetrated through BLMIS has many international implications, involving foreign individuals, feeder funds, and international banking institutions. The complex transactions engaged in by those parties are being untangled by the Trustee with the assistance of his Counsel here in the United States and in each of the foreign jurisdictions concerned. As is set forth in ¶¶ 68-82 of the Fourth Interim Report, the Trustee is engaged in litigation in Europe, Gibraltar, Canada, and throughout the Caribbean, including Bermuda, the Cayman Islands, and the British Virgin Islands. He has retained counsel in these jurisdictions for the purpose of preserving and recovering customer funds being held in those countries. Recently, the Trustee retained Werder Vigano as international special counsel in Switzerland pursuant to this Court's Order dated September 13, 2010. [ECF No. 2980]. Hundreds of millions of dollars are at stake in these international matters, each of which requires extensive legal and investigative analysis on the part of the Trustee, his Counsel, and Consultants.

36. The Trustee's investigation is ongoing. Not a single penny of the costs incurred in connection with the investigation, however, comes at the expense of the customers, nor will they ever at any time in this proceeding. Rather, these expenses are advanced by SIPC, so that any customer monies recovered can be distributed to the same in accordance with SIPA.

37. Given the unprecedented fraud perpetrated by Madoff, the issues involved are complex, the discovery is wide-ranging, and the litigation through BLMIS is hotly contested. All of this results in enormous effort by the Trustee and his Counsel for the benefit of the victims. During the Compensation Period, the Trustee, his Counsel, and Consultants have met extraordinary challenges in their continuing efforts to pursue customer property, protect estate assets, and otherwise benefit the customers of BLMIS. The following discussion and the materials attached to this Application cover the major categories of services performed for which allowance of compensation is sought by B&H.

IV. DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

38. The following is a more detailed synopsis of the significant services rendered by the Trustee and B&H during the Compensation Period, organized according to the internal B&H matter numbers and task codes.

39. Matters 01 and 02 are the general matter numbers used by B&H and the Trustee, respectively. These matter numbers utilize individual task codes for specific categories of work to permit a more detailed analysis of the fees incurred. For specific litigations or other discrete matters to which a large number of hours are or will be billed, new matter numbers are opened and used, each of which are described in more detail herein.

40. Matter Numbers 03-26 (with the exception of Matter 05, which relates to customer claims) relate to litigation filed against various individuals, entities, and feeder funds. In each of those litigations, B&H attorneys perform the following tasks related to the individual actions: conduct legal research; draft internal memoranda; engage in internal meetings with B&H attorneys and the Trustee's Consultants regarding investigation and litigation strategy; draft and file pleadings, motions, and other related litigation documents; and engage in discussions with the counsel for defendant(s). Rather than repeat these tasks, the description of each matter will be limited to matter-specific tasks and case activity that occurred during this Compensation Period.

A. MATTER 01 – COUNSEL TO THE TRUSTEE

41. This matter categorizes the time spent by B&H and encompasses the below enumerated tasks.

i. Trustee Investigation – Task Code 01

42. This category relates to time spent with respect to the investigation into BLMIS, Madoff, and various assets. During this Compensation Period, B&H attorneys:

- Initiated, participated in, and monitored over 271 pending and 87 potential international third-party proceedings and 195 domestic third-party proceedings involving Madoff and/or BLMIS.
- Continued the investigation of banks, feeder funds, auditors, insiders, Madoff friends and family members, former BLMIS employees, and all other Madoff-related parties.
- Continued the investigation of Madoff Securities International Limited (“MSIL”).
- Coordinated efforts with the United States Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York (“USAO”), Federal Bureau of Investigation (“FBI”), Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”), SEC, and many other local, federal, and international officials involved in the investigation of Madoff and BLMIS.
- Reviewed copies of records obtained by the FBI and SEC and other information from the USAO and securities regulators.
- Communicated with the Trustee, SIPC, Windels Marx, AlixPartners, FTI, and various other consultants regarding the IA accounts and records of the transactions, business investments, and ventures between the potential insiders and BLMIS, Madoff, and Madoff family members.
- Discussed and conferred with SIPC, Windels Marx, International Counsel, and various government entities regarding investigation and litigation strategy.
- Prepared avoidance actions against various targets seeking the return of customer property.
- Drafted and issued hundreds of inquiry letters and subpoenas to potentially related third parties concerning BLMIS litigation.
- Prepared requests for discovery and negotiated other discovery-related issues with adversaries.

- Organized and reviewed documents received in response to third party inquiries and subpoenas.
- Prepared for and conducted Rule 2004 examinations of various individuals and entities.
- Reviewed account information and statements of BLMIS IA customers.
- Researched various trust and estates issues relating to BLMIS claimants.
- Researched and evaluated consultants for potential engagement as experts for various aspects of litigation.

ii. Bankruptcy Court Litigation – Task Code 02

43. This category relates to time spent conducting legal research, drafting, and filing various pleadings and motions in the main bankruptcy proceeding and the adversary proceedings filed against the Trustee. During this Compensation Period, B&H attorneys:

- Prepared and revised appellate briefs submitted to the Second Circuit regarding the “net equity” definition, held internal discussions regarding the same, and analyzed opposition briefs.
- Prepared and revised pleadings relating to the “customer” definition, including the motion and supporting briefs filed on June 11, 2010 and the reply brief filed on September 20, 2010; analyzed over 180 oppositions received; and prepared for the hearing on the motion held on October 19, 2010.
- Drafted and filed various motions, pleadings, amended complaints, motions to dismiss, scheduling orders, pleadings, stipulations, and other documents submitted to the Bankruptcy Court in connection with all ongoing motion practice in the main bankruptcy proceeding and the avoidance actions.
- Prepared and filed Trustee reports and fee applications for the Trustee, B&H, and various International Counsel.
- Researched causes of action under the Bankruptcy Code and other bankruptcy-related legal issues that have been or will be brought by the Trustee.
- Developed case management procedures for avoidance actions.
- Prepared for filing foreign/special counsel retention applications.

iii. Feeder Funds – Task Code 03

44. The Trustee has delegated teams of B&H attorneys to identify, investigate and monitor potential feeder funds in the U.S. and abroad and bring actions against such funds for the recovery of estate assets. During this Compensation Period, in addition to the general investigation described above, relevant witnesses were deposed or interviewed. B&H attorneys continued to issue Rule 2004 subpoenas relevant to the feeder funds, conducted an ongoing review of documents received in response to such third party subpoenas, and drafted pleadings relating to the feeder funds. Many feeder funds are still under investigation and require extensive analysis as a result of their often complicated and opaque corporate structures. Indeed, the Trustee described to the Court the “uniform front of silence” presented by the feeder funds that requires “digging in[to], finding out all of those things that went on for years and years.” Fourth App. Hr’g Tr. 23. (collectively, the “Thybo Defendants”) seeking the return of approximately $63 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law, for turnover, accounting, preferences, fraudulent conveyances, and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the Thybo Defendants. The Trustee filed an amended complaint objecting to Thybo Stable Fund’s customer claim that seeks $217,163,851.

110. As with each of the matters in litigation, B&H attorneys conducted the tasks outlined in ¶ 40 during this Compensation Period. B&H attorneys continued the investigation of Thybo and reviewed documents relating to the same. The time by which the Thybo Defendants may move, answer, or otherwise respond to the amended complaint was extended up to and including December 3, 2010. A pretrial conference is scheduled to be held on December 14, 2010.

S. MATTER 19 – RUTH MADOFF

111. This matter categorizes time spent by B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance action against Ruth Madoff seeking the return of approximately $44 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law, for turnover, accounting, preferences, fraudulent conveyances, disallowance of Mrs. Madoff's claims against the estate, imposition of a constructive trust, and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of Mrs. Madoff.

112. In addition to the tasks outlined in ¶ 40, during this Compensation Period, B&H attorneys engaged in settlement discussions with counsel for Mrs. Madoff. B&H attorneys also agreed to extend Mrs. Madoff's time to answer or otherwise respond to the Trustee's complaint to December 17, 2010. A pretrial conference is scheduled to be held on December 21, 2010.

T. MATTER 20 –CONFIDENTIAL

113. This matter is currently under investigation. Time relating to this matter is confidential as attorney work-product.

U. MATTER 21 – AVOIDANCE ACTION INVESTIGATION/LITIGATION

114. This matter categorizes time spent investigating the fictitious profits withdrawn from BLMIS customer accounts, drafting of avoidance action complaints, and researching various issues relating to such avoidance actions.

V. MATTER 22 – FOX & MARSHALL

115. This matter categorizes time spent by B&H attorneys on the adversary proceeding commenced by the Trustee against Adele Fox ("Fox") and Susanne Marshall ("Marshall"), individually, and to the extent they purport to represent a class of those similarly situated (collectively, the “Florida Plaintiffs”), and the Trustee’s related Application for a Temporary Restraining Order, Enforcement of the Automatic Stay and a Preliminary Injunction (the “Fox Application”).

116. In February 2010, BLMIS customers Fox and Marshall commenced separate putative class actions (the “Florida Actions”) against the Estate of Jeffry M. Picower and related entities (the “Picower Defendants”) in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida (the “Florida District Court”). The Florida Plaintiffs alleged damages based on conspiracy, conversion, unjust enrichment, and violations of the Florida RICO statute and their complaints, substantially identical, relied heavily on the allegations in the complaint filed by the Trustee in this Court against the Picower Defendants in May 2009.

117. On March 31, 2010, the Trustee filed the Fox Application in this Court, which the Florida Plaintiffs opposed, and on April 27, 2010, a hearing was held on the same. This Court granted the Trustee’s Fox Application, finding that the Florida Actions violate the automatic stay provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and hence, are void ab initio, and preliminarily enjoined the Florida Plaintiffs and related parties from proceeding with the Florida Actions or commencing any other action against the Picower Defendants. A Notice of Appeal to the District Court was filed by the Florida Plaintiffs on May 12, 2010. The Florida Plaintiffs subsequently filed separate but substantially similar Designations of Contents to be included in the record and issues on appeal (the “Designations”) and the Trustee moved to strike certain items and one issue from these Designations (the “Motion to Strike”). On August 3, 2010, the Court held a hearing on the Trustee’s Motion to Strike and granted the Trustee’s requested relief. The Florida Plaintiffs have each filed an appellate brief with the District Court.

The District Court consolidated the Florida Plaintiffs' appeals of the Fox Application and the Motion to Strike.

118. In addition to the tasks outlined in ¶ 40, during this Compensation Period, B&H attorneys prepared and filed numerous pleadings and related briefings in connection with this matter, including the Trustee's reply to the opposition of the Trustee's Motion to Strike, which was filed on July 23, 2010, and prepared for the hearings discussed above. A pre-trial conference is scheduled to be held on December 29, 2010.

W. MATTER 23 – CANAVAN

119. This matter categorizes time spent by B&H attorneys on the adversary proceeding commenced by the Trustee against three BLMIS customers, individually and on behalf of a similarly situated prospective class of customers (the "New Jersey Plaintiffs"), and the Trustee's related Application for a Temporary Restraining Order, Enforcement of the Automatic Stay and a Preliminary Injunction (the "New Jersey Application").

120. On February 24, 2010, the New Jersey Plaintiffs filed a putative class action (the "New Jersey Action") in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey ("New Jersey District Court") against SIPC's Board of Directors and CEO/President (the "SIPC Defendants"). The New Jersey Plaintiffs alleged damages based on bad faith failure to pay insurance claims, fraud, violation of the New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act, and promissory estoppel.

121. On April 9, 2010, the Trustee filed the New Jersey Application in this Court, which the New Jersey Plaintiffs opposed. On April 23, 2010, the SIPC Defendants moved to transfer the New Jersey Action from the New Jersey District Court to the District Court, for referral to this Court (the "Transfer Motion"). In an order dated July 6, 2010, the Transfer Motion was granted by the New Jersey District Court. The District Court subsequently removed the New Jersey Action to this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a).

122. In addition to the tasks outlined in ¶ 40, during this Compensation Period, B&H attorneys prepared and filed the Reply Memorandum in Further Support of the New Jersey Application and In Opposition to Defendants' Cross-Motion to Dismiss on June 16, 2010, and continued to prepare for the hearing on the New Jersey Application in this Court, which is scheduled to be held on December 29, 2010.

X. MATTER 24 – ROBERT LURIA

123. This matter categorizes time spent by B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance action against Robert Luria and Robert Luria Partners (“Robert Luria Defendants”) seeking the return of approximately eighty thousand dollars under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law, for turnover, accounting, preferences, fraudulent conveyances, disallowance of their claims against the estate, imposition of a constructive trust, and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of Robert Luria and Robert Luria Partners.

124. During this Compensation Period, B&H attorneys reviewed and analyzed the answer and counterclaims asserted by the Robert Luria Defendants. The Trustee has moved to dismiss the counterclaims. A pretrial conference is scheduled to be held on March 3, 2011.

Y. MATTER 25 – AMY LURIA

125. This matter categorizes time spent by B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance action against Amy Luria and Amy Luria Partners LLC (“Amy Luria Defendants”) seeking the return of approximately ninety-five thousand dollars under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law, for turnover, accounting, preferences, fraudulent conveyances, disallowance of their claims against the estate, imposition of a constructive trust, and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of Amy Luria and Amy Luria Partners LLC.

126. During this Compensation Period, B&H attorneys reviewed and analyzed the answer and counterclaims asserted by the Amy Luria Defendants. The Trustee has moved to dismiss the counterclaims. A pretrial conference is scheduled to be held on March 3, 2011.

Z. MATTER 26 – RICHARD STAHL

127. This matter categorizes time spent by B&H attorneys on the adversary proceeding commenced by the Trustee against Richard Stahl (“Stahl”), Mark Abend (“Abend”), and ten other plaintiffs that purport to be similarly situated (collectively, the “Stahl Plaintiffs”), and the Trustee’s related Application for a Temporary Restraining Order, Enforcement of the Automatic Stay and a Preliminary Injunction (the “Stahl Application”).

128. In June 2009, Richard Stahl and Reed Abend, former traders for BLMIS’ market-making business, commenced separate lawsuits (the “Madoff Actions”) against Mark and Andrew Madoff in the New York City Supreme Court. Stahl and Abend alleged they were owed nearly $2 million combined in deferred compensation from Mark and Andrew Madoff. Similarly, the Stahl Plaintiffs alleged they were owed damages by Peter Madoff, Mark Madoff, Andrew Madoff, and Shana Madoff (the “Madoff Defendants”). As is true of the Trustee’s claims against the Madoff Defendants, all of the claims made in the Madoff Actions are based on the Madoff Defendants’ conduct in their roles at BLMIS. The Stahl Plaintiffs do not allege any other, independent conduct by the Madoff Defendants.

129. In addition to the tasks outlined in ¶ 40, during this Compensation period, B&H attorneys prepared responsive briefing in support of the Stahl Application, including a reply memorandum of law filed on August 17, 2010. A pre-trial conference and hearing on the Stahl Application are scheduled to be held on January 27, 2011.

V. COMPENSATION REQUESTED

130. This Application has been prepared in accordance with the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements of Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases adopted by the Court on April 19, 1995 (the "Local Guidelines") and the Compensation Order. Pursuant to the Local Guidelines, the certification of David J. Sheehan, Esq., regarding compliance with the same is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

131. The Trustee expended 922.10 hours in the rendition of professional services and B&H expended 104,849.80 hours in the rendition of professional and paraprofessional services on behalf of the Trustee during the Compensation Period, resulting in an average hourly rate of $825 for Trustee and $438.37 for B&H for fees incurred.

132. Prior to filing this Application, in accordance with the Compensation Order, the Trustee and B&H provided to SIPC: (i) monthly fee statements setting forth the Trustee's and B&H's fees for services rendered and expenses incurred during the Compensation Period beginning June 1, 2010 through September 30, 2010; and (ii) a draft of this Application. In connection with four monthly statements each submitted by the Trustee and B&H and this Application, the Trustee voluntarily adjusted his fees by writing off $132,742.50 (in addition to the 10% public interest discount, as discussed below). B&H voluntarily adjusted its fees by writing off $422,223.75 (in addition to the 10% public interest discount, as discussed below) and wrote off expenses customarily charged to other clients in the amount of $308,328.27.

133. At SIPC's request, the Trustee's and B&H's fees in this case reflect a 10% public interest discount from their standard rates. This discount has resulted in an additional voluntary reduction during the Compensation Period of $76,073.25 for the Trustee and $4,280,275.15 for B&H. Such fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in Chapter 11 cases and comparable bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy cases in a competitive national legal market.

134. Pursuant to the Compensation Order, on July 20, 2010, the Trustee and B&H provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from June 1, 2010 through June 30, 2010 (the “June Fee Statements”). The Trustee’s June Fee Statement reflected fees of $190,005.75 and expenses of $893.41. SIPC’s staff made certain adjustments and suggestions to the B&H June Fee Statement, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the B&H June Fee Statement reflected fees of $9,483,369.30 and expenses of $183,498.80. Accordingly, SIPC advanced $161,504.88 for services rendered by the Trustee, $8,060,863.91 for services rendered by B&H, after subtracting the Court-ordered 15% holdback, and $893.41 and $183,498.80 for expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H, respectively.

135. Pursuant to the Compensation Order, on August 20, 2010, the Trustee and B&H provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from July 1, 2010 through July 31, 2010 (the “July Fee Statements”). The Trustee’s July Fee Statement reflected fees of $167,359.50 and expenses of $61.00. SIPC’s staff made certain adjustments and suggestions to the B&H July Fee Statement, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the B&H July Fee Statement reflected fees of $9,059,448.15 and expenses of $284,362.20. Accordingly, SIPC advanced $142,255.57 for services rendered by the Trustee and $7,700,530.93 for services rendered by B&H, after subtracting the Court-ordered 15% holdback, and $61.00 and $284,362.20 for expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H, respectively.

136. Pursuant to the Compensation Order, on September 20, 2010, the Trustee and B&H provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from August 1, 2010 through August 31, 2010 (the “August Fee Statements”). The Trustee’s August Fee Statement reflected fees of $154,885.50 and no expenses. SIPC’s staff made certain adjustments and suggestions to the B&H August Fee Statement, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the B&H August Fee Statement reflected fees of $10,164,079.80 and expenses of $200,865.36. Accordingly, SIPC advanced $131,652.67 for services rendered by the Trustee, $8,639,467.83 for services rendered by B&H, after subtracting the Court-ordered 15% holdback, and $200,865.36 for expenses incurred by B&H.

137. Pursuant to the Compensation Order, on October 15, 2010, the Trustee and B&H provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from September 1, 2010 through September 30, 2010 (the “September Fee Statements”). SIPC’s staff made certain adjustments and suggestions to the Trustee’s September Fee Statement, which were adopted by the Trustee. After such adjustments, the Trustee’s September Fee Statement reflected fees of $172,408.50 and no expenses. SIPC’s staff made certain adjustments and suggestions to the B&H September Fee Statement, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the B&H September Fee Statement reflected fees of $9,815,579.00 and expenses of $182,605.98. Accordingly, SIPC advanced $146,547.22 for services rendered by the Trustee, and $8,343,242.24 for services rendered by

B&H, after subtracting the Court-ordered 15% holdback, and $182,605.98 for expenses incurred by B&H.

138. Exhibit B annexed hereto is a summary by task code of total hours expended and total fees for services rendered by the Trustee during the Compensation Period.

139. Exhibit C annexed hereto provides a schedule of the Trustee's total expenses incurred during the Compensation Period for which reimbursement is requested. The requested expenses are customarily charged to and paid by B&H's bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy clients.

140. Exhibit D annexed hereto provides a schedule of B&H professionals and paraprofessionals who have provided services for the Debtor during the Compensation Period, the capacity in which each individual is employed by B&H, the year in which each attorney was licensed to practice law, the hourly billing rate charged by B&H for services provided by each individual, the aggregate number of hours billed by each individual, and the total compensation requested for each individual, prior to the 10% discount. The 10% discount ($4,280,275.15, as described above) is taken off the total cumulative amount billed, as reflected on Exhibit D.

141. Exhibit E annexed hereto is a summary of services performed by B&H during the Compensation Period organized by B&H task code and matter number.

142. Exhibit F annexed hereto provides a schedule of the expenses for which reimbursement is requested by B&H. The requested expenses are customarily charged to and paid by B&H's bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy clients. B&H has not charged for a number of categories of expenses regularly charged to and paid by B&H's clients, including certain inter-office travel and related expenses (lodging, meals, airfare and other transportation). These expenses amount to a voluntary reduction of $257,471.00.

143. There is no agreement or understanding among the Trustee, B&H, and any other person, other than members of B&H, for sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in this case. No agreement or understanding prohibited by 18 U.S.C. § 155 has been made or will be made by the Trustee or B&H.

144. To the extent that time or disbursement charges for services rendered or disbursements incurred relate to the Compensation Period, but were not classified or processed prior to the preparation of this Application, the Trustee and B&H reserve the right to request additional compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.

VI. RELEASE OF THE HOLDBACK

145. The Compensation Order established an orderly, regular process for the allowance and payment of interim monthly compensation and reimbursement to the Trustee and B&H [ECF Nos. 126, 1078]. Pursuant to the Compensation Order, payment of a percentage of the approved compensation—initially twenty percent (20%) and subsequently reduced to fifteen percent (15%)—is deferred through the conclusion of the liquidation period or until further order of the Court (the “Holdback”).

146. To date, the amount of the Holdback for the Trustee’s and B&H’s fees are $532,843.00 and $19,849,437.95, respectively. As the Trustee will have determined by December 14, 2010 virtually every customer claim submitted to him, SIPC has consented to the release of $100,000 to the Trustee and $3,400,000 to B&H from the Holdback, reducing the Holdback to $432,843.00 and $16,449,437.95, respectively, after this Application.

147. SIPC’s recommendation that will be filed in support of the Application will indicate its consent to the release of these amounts from the Holdback.

VII. THE REQUEST FOR INTERIM COMPENSATION SHOULD BE GRANTED

148. Section 78eee(b)(5)(A) of SIPA provides in pertinent part that, upon appropriate application and after a hearing, “[t]he court shall grant reasonable compensation for services rendered and reimbursement for proper costs and expenses incurred . . . by a trustee, and by the attorney for such a trustee . . .” Section 78eee(b)(5)(C) of SIPA specifically establishes SIPC’s role in connection with applications for compensation and the consideration the Court should give to SIPC’s recommendation concerning fees. That section provides as follows:

In any case in which such allowances are to be paid by SIPC without reasonable expectation of recoupment thereof as provided in this chapter and there is no difference between the amounts requested and the amounts recommended by SIPC, the court shall award the amounts recommended by SIPC. In determining the amount of allowances in all other cases, the court shall give due consideration to the nature, extent, and value of the services rendered, and shall place considerable reliance on the recommendation of SIPC.

149. To the extent the general estate is insufficient to pay such allowances as an expense of administration, section 78eee(b)(5)(E) of SIPA requires SIPC to advance the funds necessary to pay the compensation of the Trustee and B&H (see SIPA § 78fff-3(b)(2)).

150. As previously reported by the Trustee in the Fourth Interim Report, based on the allocation process set forth in SIPA, the Trustee has determined that he has no reasonable expectation that the general estate will be sufficient to make any distribution to general creditors or pay any administrative expenses. That is, the Trustee believes that any assets allocated to the BLMIS general estate will be exhausted prior to his being able to reimburse SIPC fully. The Trustee has been advised by SIPC that it concurs in this belief of the Trustee. Accordingly, any fees and expenses allowed by this Court will be paid from advances by SIPC without any reasonable expectation by SIPC of recoupment thereof.

151. Therefore, with respect to this Application, the Trustee and B&H request that consistent with section 78eee(b)(5)(C) of SIPA, the Court “shall award the amounts recommended by SIPC.” See In re Bell & Beckwith, 112 B.R. 876 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1990). SIPC will file its recommendation to the Court with respect to this Application prior to the hearing scheduled to be held on December 14, 2010.

152. The Trustee and B&H submit that the request for interim allowance of compensation and expenses made by this Application is reasonable and complies with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code governing applications for compensation and reimbursement of expenses, pursuant to section 78eee(b)(5) of SIPA.

VIII. CONCLUSION

153. The Trustee and B&H respectfully submit that the services rendered during the Compensation Period and accomplishments to date merit the approval of the fees and disbursements requested herein, and respectfully requests that the Court enter Orders as follows:

(i) allowing and awarding $684,659.25 (of which $581,960.34 is to be paid currently and 15%, or $102,698.91, is to be deferred through the conclusion of the liquidation period or until further order of the Court) as an interim payment for professional services rendered by the Trustee during the Compensation Period, and $954.41 as reimbursement of the actual and necessary costs and expenses incurred by the Trustee in connection with the rendition of such services;

(ii) allowing and awarding $38,522,476.35 (of which $32,744,104.91 is to be paid currently and 15%, or $5,778,371.44, is to be deferred through the conclusion of the liquidation period or until further order of the Court) as an interim payment for professional services rendered by B&H during the Compensation Period, and $851,332.34 as reimbursement of the actual and necessary costs and expenses incurred by B&H in connection with the rendition of such services;

releasing $100,000.00 to the Trustee and $3,400,000.00 to B&H from the Holdback; and (iv) granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
